Bennet Carr, Headmaster, said “These excellent outcomes are just reward for this year group. They have shown themselves to be kind in their support of others, respectful and upstanding in their conduct, adventurous in embracing the many opportunities available to them and resilient when faced with challenge and adversity. Indeed, the character they have displayed as individuals, and their contribution to the wider life of the School, has been every bit as impressive as their success in these examinations. I look forward to them entering the Sixth Form alongside the new students joining us this September. Together, they will form a vibrant and talented year group, and I am excited to see what they will accomplish over the next two years”.
