GCSE READING LIST

YEAR 9, YEAR 10 and YEAR 11

The English Department and the Library

Before you browse this booklist ...

All students studying GCSE English will be expected to read at least five books from this list, or their equivalent, over the two years of the course as well as the texts set for the examinations.

Reading for pleasure improves writing and comprehension skills and has been proven to help performance in exams as well as being a lifelong source of enjoyment.

Some of the books have been starred* to show that they are more suited to Year 9 students or are more accessible than the other titles. Others have been marked with a cross+ to indicate that the events they depict may be distressing and require maturity of understanding; parental guidance may be needed in these cases.

The list is not intended to be prescriptive and you may choose other books under the guidance of your English teachers, but it is hoped you will pick writers who are challenging and who will expand your experience, understanding and enjoyment of the written word.
